Preface

Purpose of Booklet

As a close partner with schools, the Curriculum Development Institute (CDI) has systematically organised a series of Professional Development Programmes (PDPs) on curriculum development for principals and teachers. The purposes are to help them achieve personal learning goals, gain professional knowledge, develop pedagogical and leadership skills suited to the needs of their students and contexts of their schools.

To enable schools to plan and co-ordinate the professional development of teachers at the school level for the 2009/10 school year, CDI has prepared this booklet on Professional Development Programmes for Secondary School Principals and Teachers. The details are also available at the website: <http://www.edb.gov.hk/cd/pdp/sec>. The programme information on the web will be revised or updated in response to changing needs and circumstances.

Design & Focus of Programmes

The design of the programmes aims to sustain the curriculum reform introduced since 2001/02. As informed by the interim review on the Curriculum Reform in 2008, the programmes have therefore considered the areas requiring greater emphasis, further capacity building, and schools' responses received from the latest questionnaire survey on training needs of the New Senior Secondary (NSS) Curriculum and other channels. The PDPs to be offered in this school year focus on the following:

- i) Teacher preparation for NSS subjects in four identified areas, namely: (a) Understanding and Interpreting the Curriculum; (b) Assessing Student Learning; (c) Learning and Teaching Strategies; and (d) Enriching Knowledge;
- ii) Learning and teaching strategies especially those promoting other learning experiences/student learning profile, reading across the curriculum, assessment for learning, catering for learner diversity, managing curriculum interface issues, strengthening curriculum leadership and management for effective implementation;
- iii) Thematic series related to Moral and Civic Education (e.g. "Enhance Students' Competencies against Psychotropic Substances Abuse") and National Education (e.g. "Explore Shanghai Expo and Understand our Motherland"); and
- iv) Brief information in the Annex on student activities provided by different organisations which will facilitate schools' early planning of student learning activities in the 2009/10 school year and the promotion of Life-wide Learning in schools.

Organisation of Booklet

PDPs in this booklet are organised under four broad categories: (A) Programmes for New Senior Secondary (NSS) Curriculum and Assessment; (B) Programmes on Management and Leadership; (C) Programmes for Sustaining Curriculum and Assessment Reform, and (D) Programmes on Induction, all of which include a variety of programmes on the curriculum emphases, learning and teaching strategies for the various curriculum areas and courses for specific groups of school personnel (e.g. new panel chairpersons, new teachers, librarians, laboratory technicians). Each programme is indicated in its title whether it is a ‘new’, ‘re-run’ (programme content identical or with minor adaptations) or ‘refreshed’ (programme content with more than half updates) course. Principals, teachers and other members of staff may quickly identify programmes that may interest them through searching the first three columns of the tables which indicate the theme, the target group and the title of the programmes.

Enhancing the capabilities of teachers is fundamental to the realisation of the vision of the education reform in schools. To this end, a new culture of learning and teaching as well as organisational learning needs to be developed and sustained in schools. The professional development opportunities offered by the programmes are desirably complemented by teachers’ learning by doing in real classroom and school settings, collaborative learning amongst teachers in schools as learning communities, sharing among teachers in schools’ staff development activities and other forms of professional learning.

CDI would take into consideration feedback from principals and teachers on courses delivered this year and continue to design appropriate programmes to meet the needs in the coming years. All views and suggestions from principals and teachers are welcome and they may be sent to:

Drawn mainly from the Victoria and Albert Museum’s collections of French and British fashion and photography, it explores the creative, social and commercial aspects of this highly traditional and luxurious craft industry and analyses its legacy. Starting in Paris under the German occupation and the impact of the “New Look” that emerged in 1947, the exhibition examines the world and history of couture: its designers, fashion houses, models and clients and its introduction into popular fashion. Highlighting the works of the masters and legends of fashion such as Christian Dior, Cristóbal Balenciaga, Pierre Balmain and Hubert de Givenchy in Paris and their London counterparts Norman Hartnell and Hardy Amies, it traces one of the most glamorous and remarkable decades in fashion history. More than 100 dresses will be on display, including daywear, cocktail and evening dresses made for the high society and royalty, alongside photographs by renowned fashion photographers Cecil Beaton and Richard Avedon and documentary film, textiles and archive material. “The Golden Age of Couture: Paris and London 1947–1957” offers an insight into fashion at its most artful, imaginative and powerful and into a decade when designers set the highest standards of quality and innovation.
